Foreword

We, the Annual Staff, are proud to present to you our 1956 Beacon. We pause, our school year swiftly coming to a close, to catch a final glimpse of the happiness that has been ours and the friends that we have made. Many things have happened during our stay here that we shall never forget. We shall be greatly compensated to know that you are satisfied. The 1956 Beacon is yours. You made it; we preserved it through word and picture.

Rom 12:1-2

I trust this verse shall be true in your life.

Bro Dongell

The annual staff of 55-56 proudly dedicate this Beacon to the Rev. Herbert Dongell. His high standard of holiness, his untiring patience, and humble attitude have indeed been a challenge and inspiration to each of us. We feel that we shall be greatly inspired to serve Christ with our whole hearts because of the rich spiritual truths that he has imparted to us. May God's richest blessing rest upon his life and may he be influential in leading many more young people to follow in the steps of Christ.

In Memoriam

On June 13, 1955, we suffered a sudden and great loss in the passing of our beloved General Superintendent, the Rev. L. W. Sturk. He lived a high, noble life, deeply devoted, full of faith, and possessed by the Holy Ghost. He showed an unfaltering loyalty and deep concern for the church and work of Christ.

Rev. Sturk was recognized as a beloved saint, gentleman, minister of the Word of God and an understanding friend to all. While he is missed by family and friends, we know that our loss is heaven's gain as this Christian triumphantly entered that celestial city to join the ranks of the Redeemed.

On July 2, 1955, James Lentz, who would have been a member of our class, passed over the line of worlds where he was transformed into God's likeness. That afternoon he was summoned and radiated the saving grace of his Lord. His every ambition and desire was to please God and to administer His Holy Word. We would not call him back—rather, we would look forward to joining him with the Redeemed of all ages.

Recipe for Vision

"Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already unto harvest."

John 4:35

Former President Hoover once said "When young men cease to dream, America will cease to progress." A great corporation proclaims "Vision is indispensable to progress." Thus, civilization climbs upward to the heights.

The Master speaks to His disciples about Vision as essential to success. They shall deal, not with politics nor with machines of cold steel but with men and women; boys and girls. He points up a need that is always present and states a simple recipe for the Vision that discovers far-reaching horizons.

The ingredients are simple: First, look beyond yourself, "Lift up your eyes." Second, discover a compassionate concern, "Look on the fields." Third, learn that the time for reaping is now, "For they are white." Fourth, dare to become a harvest hand for the Master, "They are already to harvest."

The Class of '56 has unlimited opportunities. Your Alma Mater bids you God's speed.

R. D. GUNSALUS
President

One does not have to live very long to realize that no educational process can be specialized enough to prepare us in detail to meet successfully the multiplicity of situations into which the stream of life will surely thrust us. There is one basic ingredient, however; which has always made the difference between an "A" and an "F" when the whole of a man's impact on his society has been evaluated—that is Christian character.

As you leave these halls to enter new and untried fields of experience let the character reference which God gave to a man named Stephen be a constant challenge to you:—"Stephen was a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost." If this be so in your life then the rest of it may also be yours:—"Full . . . of power, he did great wonders and miracles among the people."

M. E. DIETER
Assistant to President

Jesus said: "Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me."
Mark 8:34.

The secret of success in life and particularly in Christian service is wrapped up in three things; renunciation of self life, dedication to Christian service and following in the steps of the master. To save one's life one must abandon it for Christ and the Gospel's sake. To keep it you must give it away. So to follow acceptably in Christ's way, we must give and be spent. Only in this way do we achieve success. These are His footprints, Class of '56, walk in them. God Bless You.

C. E. WERT
The Dean

To the Class of 1956:

May your days be many and profitable as you work for the Lord and follow "In His Steps." My prayer for each of you is that you may always be the kind of person that others will respect and have confidence in as a true Christian. It has been a real pleasure to be associated with you.

Class History

1956

The illustrious class of 1956 came into this new world on the bright morn of September 5, 1951, at the Allentown Bible Institute. Look at their bewildered eyes, quizzical faces and tousled hair! Do we hear their plaintive cries? Could it be from filling out those long yellow sheets of blanks for registration?! Those composing this new body (those who have survived the various childhood diseases and growing-pains of class-life) are James Brillhart (a neat, systematic fellow, eh, Ruth?), Leroy Fetterolf (a true Christian gentleman), George Melvin (utilizes library books), John Wiktorchik (has what it takes), and Robert Williams (likes a friendly argument). Rev. Wilbur Bubb (now pastor of a church in Massachusetts) came that year as a teacher. The year was filled brim-full with varied experiences, incidents and events, as they adjusted themselves and eased into college routine. Closing days of the school year came all too quickly, and the graduating class of 1952 said farewell. They left as their class gift the tile for the dining room floor, a grand and enduring gift by which to be remembered.

In the Fall of 1952 some new members joined this class now growing out of its infancy. Ralph Baynum (small but mighty), Miles Bennett (wake up!), Ora Bennett (gentle and quiet!), Curtis Blimline (a Greek buddy), Robert Chew (business freezing?), Elsie C. Starusko (always busy—for others), William Thurston (took unto himself our librarian), Earle Wilson (great possibilities), Vaughn Brayton (an expert on colors), Charles Corley ("as Bro. Orr says"), were those of the Theology Course. To the High School department came Amy Pooley (a studious editor), Jerry Roseman (the salesman), Ruth Castevans (who got the photographer's eye!), Nadine Dixon (our Southern belle), Vernon Dawson (enjoyed football until—!), James Cooley (quite the musician!), Robert Emerson, who came later in the spring, likes singing Carrolls! Remember the class (?) trip to Asbury Park and a notable letter from the President R.D.G. in February 1953? The Kampus Kitchen started stewing and brewing. Those were the days of gaiety! Maxwell's on fire! On the more solemn side, the Fourth Street Mission was opened by a group of students—to reach the needy souls about us. The graduating class gave the lovely green drapes to beautify the chapel.

With the dawn of a new school year, 1953, new recruits were ushered into the aging class. Faye Homme ("Just a minute, I'll ask Miss Trumpe"), Lois Young (won't always be Young!), Eva Mae Orange (you'll never squeeze a lemon), George Wilson (conversationalist), Charles Shumway (first on his feet), Ruth Lutts (endeared to us all), Catherine Hudson (steady on her feet—on ice!), Jacqueline Trimm (longs for long s.p.'s!), and Mark Wiest (as able mechanic). To the faculty were added Mr. and Mrs. Masterman as directors of our music department and beloved by all. Also called was Mr. Charles Noll, our most capable leader of the instrumental choir (which he has founded and nurtured until it has reached national notice). Rev. and Mrs. Pownell and Rev. Charles Kindt also joined the teaching staff. It was during this year that the music hall and music cottage were revamped and modernized. To music hall was given the name of Virginia Hall. Another building was reconstructed for commercial classes and dedicated as Del-Mar-Va Hall. The campus really began to take shape. Maxwell Hall became the girls' (Young Ladies') dorm. Allentown Bible Institute became accredited by the State of Pennsylvania and changed its name to the Eastern Pilgrim College, truly a great landmark in our history. A float was entered in the Allentown Christmas Parade. The chimes for the organ were presented by the class of 1954, a gift much appreciated by all.

The Fall of 1954 found a number of new students expanding our maturing class. Richard Christman (big profit from Leh's), Rita Howells (sleepy?), Betty Germano (homesick—for E.P.C.?), Mabel Carroll (with that beautiful voice), Ruth Bortner (quiet with warm, friendly ways), Geraldine Ream (Have your Spanish done?), Harold Shelley (sounds like a famous name!), Ira Sollenberger (going to E.M.C.) and Esther Wilhelm (living for Jesus), in the College and Theology courses. In the High School department were enrolled Wayne Butler (Happy Birthday!!), Gary Gattone (drives (?) a Ford), May Curtis (a mighty fine waitress), Charles Lambert (got a new job), Shirley Wensel (home-town girl), and Noble Wilhelm (likes color?!). Rev. and Mrs. Carl Hall and family moved into Old Main to fill the places of instructor, dean of men and assistant college pastor. We deeply appreciated his life and labors while here with us.

The year of 1954-1955 was a year marked with memorable events. First of all the ground was broken on October 5 for the New Administration Building. The Share Bond Campaign was launched early in February to raise funds for the building. A total of over $14,000.00 was raised in the student body alone! In connection with this drive the Mixed Chorus made eleven week-end trips, and covered some 4,000 miles, in the effort to present the challenge to about 175 churches. The response was beyond all expectation—$102,000.00. Praise God! We won't forget our field trips—to Philadelphia and to New York. The fire alarm system was installed in various dorms. It works at Maxwell!! A new Hammond organ was purchased for the chapel. Who will ever forget the mock wedding?!!! At graduation Rees Hall was dedicated and Wesley Chapel rededicated (having had the portico added). We were honored to have Dr. Paul Rees as speaker. The class gift was very appropriate that of lamps for the beautifying of our campus.

At the beginning of our final year at E.P.C. new halls and classrooms seemed like a dream—being realized. The fellows moved into new surroundings in the basement of Old Main. The new voices being heard in our class of '56 were those of Paul Fryer (a profound thinker), June Lynch (a little miss?), Mary Coverdale (nice, neat, and noiseless), James Pickett (has the heart of Stone!), John Rhoads (a character, they say), Donald Ridenour (makes a handsome waiter!), Lois Rydwell (a big Senior at last!), Ruth (Snyder) McHenry (you pulled a fast one!), Mary Weidner (can I have light permission for my room mate?), Carlton Failing (Sonny, the mighty sportsman), and Constance Clift (daily trip all the way from Bethlehem!). Miss Anna Mae Dodge was accepted as an instructor in the music department and girls' Physical education. Miss Jean Hostetter was added to the High School faculty. Because of Rev. Carl Hall's resignation,

Rev. John P. Campbell was called to be Dean of Men. Mrs. Campbell became the new head of the dining hall, relieving Miss Carr after so many years of faithful service. Miss Harriette Elder became the new assistant cook.

The decision was made to go ahead with the completion of the additional classrooms and laboratories in Rees Hall. The tower was constructed on Wesley Chapel. The pre-medical course for nursing was added to the curriculum. Plans were laid for a new wing to be added to Dieter Hall and the construction of a new dorm for young men. (How can it be E.P.C. without Old Main?) A new ceremony was instituted—the lighting of a Christmas tree on the campus.

Never shall we forget the school socials (the operation on Earle, the arrival of Santa Claus!), the banquets, s.p.'s, baseball games in the park (home-it, Dean Wert!), the annual school picnic at Little Lehigh Park (line up for lunch!), the annual Senior trip to Washington, D. C., the Halloween and Christmas parties (any new jokes, Elsie?), vacation trips (canoes, ice skating, special songs and talks—red faces and knocking knees!), the self-denial campaign (the Torch-bearers and Candle-lighters). And summer school sessions!!! Work, food and fun!

Nor can we fail to remember our times of revival when such capable evangelists were with us, as: Rev. L. S. Miller, Rev. P. O. Carpenter, Rev. Shelton, Rev. David Wilson, Rev. George Failing, and Rev. W. F. Page. We have been highly privileged to have other visitors with us. Rev. Jasper Hoffman, Rev. Henry Olson, the late Dr. Peter Wiseman, the late Clarence Benson, and Rev. David Wilson gave a series of lectures. Rev. R. G. Flexon has been with us in our missionary conventions. Rev. Beltz, Rev. R. C. Hawkins, and Rev. Paul Elliott were other guest speakers at conventions here, whose ministry was a real blessing to us all.

Thus closes the book on our fond memories of toil and tears, fun and fears at Eastern Pilgrim College.

and ESTHER G. WILHELM

4. And to thee, our

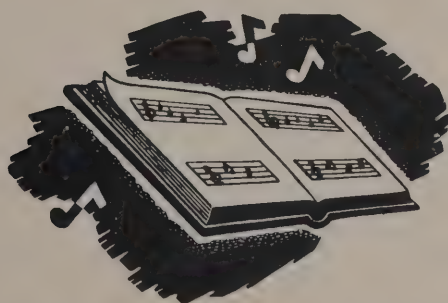

Six de-part-ing,
of the val-ley,
glor-ious mot-to,
Al-ma Ma-ter,

List our ban-ner high;
May we be like thee;
May we ev-er be;
Faith-ful we will be;

Chris-tain friends we've been to-geth-er, As the years rolled by.
Send-ing forth a Christ-like life, When-ev-er we may be.
Read-y, Lord, to do Thy bid-ding, And to fol-low Thee.
Though the Lord may lead us on, Our thoughts re-turn to Thee.

Ev-er pre-cious and the mem-ries To be held so dear,
Green and white, our toy-al co-lors White for pu-ri-ty,
Just to go where Thou dost lead us, Keep-ing step with Thee,
Ev-er may thy stan-dards guide us, More like Christ to be;

Les-sons dai-ly learned to-geth-er, Till now when Christ was near.
Green for growth in Chris-tain grace To full ma-tur-i-ty.
Till some-day Thou lead us home, And Thy dear face we see.
Hail to thee dear Al-ma Ma-ter, Hail, dear E. P.

Alma Mater

Oh, we love our Alma Mater
Neath the oaks of E.P.C.
Where songs of praise ring outward
May they ring eternally,
How we love her halls so hallowed
Where conquerors they passed through
Where spirits blended warmly
May they blend again, anew.
One day our God will call
The footsteps of us all
Will echo into time and disappear
But grant it, Lord, that we
As long as here we'll be Shall hold her royal banner high and clear.
We will miss you, Alma Mater
May our service faithful be
To Christ our glorious leader
Alma Mater E.P.C.

The Missionary Society at Eastern Pilgrim College epitomizes, more than any other activity, the grand mission of the college and the reason for its existence. The heritage passed on by founders and patrons of the school can never be perpetuated unless this educational center is a seedbed of world evangelism as well as intellectual development.

It is the fond ambition of all concerned that students leave the classrooms and halls of E.P.C. with burning, flaming hearts as well as trained minds. So while Holiness Youth ready intellect and spirit for the rigors of holy conquest, they also do their best to kindle Gospel torches from afar.

HAROLD CROSSER

Many, Many Thanks

We pause, in the midst of our 1956 BEACON, to express our deep appreciation to all those who helped in making the annual what you have found it to be. These include: Harold Garrison, for his counseling and sponsorship; Lucille Trumpe, for information; Robert Emerson, for obtaining advertisements; Jim Brillhart, for a good job with the snapshots; Ruth Castevens, Ruth Lutts, Doris Wiktorchik, Faye Homme and Eva Mae Orange, for many hours spent in typing copy; Taylor Publishing Company, for experienced advice; Conrad Studio, for many of the pictures; The Allentown Photo Shop, for developing service; all churches, friends and business firms who contributed advertisements; to many others, whose names we have not room to mention, who though small their task, helped put together your 1956 BEACON.

REPORT ON REVIVAL

"The Lord thy God in the midst of thee is mighty; He will save, He will rejoice over thee with joy." Zephaniah 3:17

How true this has proved over and over again our God has shown us His mighty saving power; and now He is reigning with us over the victory won during our recent revival.

"I don't want to scare you," said a little eight-year-old to his teacher. "But my daddy says if I don't get a better report card, somebody's gonna get a spanking!"

of the Lord's
the lines of "Stille Nacht" went through his thoughts in a flood of poetry. He wrote the words on paper and the next day asked his friend Franz Gruber, village organist, to write a tune
for his poem.

It was sung for the first time at Christmas, 1818, in the little village of Amsdorf, in Austria, but it was not until an organ builder copied it and it found its way into a Leipzig concert, in 1833, that "Stille Nacht" became popular and remains so year after year.

"Then shall we know, if we follow
on to know the Lord."

Hosea 6:3

Down in the valley with
my Saviour I would go,
Where the flowers are blossoming
and the sweet waters flow,
For where He leads me
I would follow, follow on,
Waiting in His footsteps
till the crown be won.

Down in the valley with
my Saviour I would go,
Where the storms are sweeping
and the dark waters flow,
With His hand to lead me
I will never, never fear.

Danger cannot frighten me
To my Lord I flee.

Down in the valley,
at the foot of the mountain steep,
Close beside my Saviour would my feet ever keep.

He will lead me safely
in the path that He has made,
Up to where the angels
on the hills of God abide.

Follow! follow! I would follow Jesus
Anywhere, everywhere, I would follow Him!
Follow! follow! I would follow Jesus
Everywhere He leads me I would follow on!
